LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

THE RWANDAN CANADIAN HEALING CENTRE ACKNOWLEDGES THE LAND ON WHICH ITS OFFICES ARE LOCATED ON THE TRADITIONAL TERRITORY OF MANY NATIONS INCLUDING THE MISSISSAUGAS OF THE CREDIT, THE ANISHNABEG, THE CHIPPEWA, THE HAUDENOSAUNEE AND THE WENDAT PEOPLES AND IS NOW HOME TO MANY FIRST NATIONS, INUIT, AND METIS PEOPLES.

The Centre recognizes their long history of welcoming many Nations to its territory and uplifts the values of the hosting nations. The Centre further acknowledges the oppression of lands, cultures of the original peoples in what we now know as Canada. We stand in solidarity, recognizing the similarity of lived experiences among many First Nations and members of the Black Canadian communities as far as the effects of the Trans-Atlantic slave trade are concerned.

MANDATE

The Rwandan Canadian Healing Centre (RCHC), founded in 2018 by Kizito Musabimana, is a federally registered not-for-profit organization based in Toronto, Canada. RCHC strives to provide an environment for Rwandan Canadians and other members of the Black Canadian society working to overcome traumatic experiences from genocides, wars and legacies of slavery and oppression.

GOVERNANCE

RCHC is governed by a national 7-member Board of Directors and Advisors. Members are drawn from across Canada's Rwandan and African Canadian Black community leaders.

Message from the Chair

This past year, the Rwandan Canadian Healing Centre (RCHC or the “Centre”) has achieved a lot. The formal creation of the Centre came after its Founder Mr. Kizito Musabimana, an inspiring Rwandan Canadian, walked from Toronto to Montreal during 17 cold winter days to raise awareness about Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder related to past wars, genocides, and the colonial legacy of oppression. His inspiring journey continues to motivate me and other community members who step-up as board of directors and advisors for RCHC. I continue to be proud of the work fellow board members, advisors as well as management have done and continue to do. Their invaluable work moves the Centre a step closer to providing an environment for Rwandan Canadians and other members of the Black and African Canadian society working to overcome mental health challenges, to move toward healing and integrate fully in Canadian society.

During the 2020-21 fiscal year, we achieved a lot toward our healing, rebuilding, and learning strategy. Despite continued effects of COVID-19 global pandemic, we continued to grow in our strategic and operational initiatives. In October 2021, RCHC started its Toronto office renovation and equipment upgrade courtesy of the Government of Canada. Thanks to confidence from the Federal Government, our Centre was also able to launch its first Governance Training for its Board of Directors, which was programmed alongside our fourth quarter board meeting. Our Governance and Capacity Building Project will continue to 2023. Locally, the City of Toronto funded our Black Mental Health Week Event. Finally, RCHC officially entered a partnership with the Canadian Mortgage and Housing Corporation to fund our long-term ongoing housing solution to ease mental health challenges within the African Canadian communities.

Looking to the future, RCHC has started a conversation with Health Canada to explore the potential of annual budgetary appropriations to fund our mission and operations. The last four years have been largely successful but sustainable success will not be achieved if the Centre continues to rely on project-based funding only. In this regard, we are also looking to work with private family foundations and the Ontario Trillium Foundation, along with a plan to become a Canadian Charitable Organization.

The Centre also continues to be an active participant in helping develop leadership and rebuild financial capacity for Canadian-based Rwandan/African community organizations. Through the Toronto Rwandan/African Community Cluster, RCHC secured funding for a dozen community organizations in partnership with The Network of Advancement for Black Communities (NABC) and CARY Toronto.

The Centre’s achievements in 2020-21, which you will discover in these pages, are even much more encouraging given with a world that is facing inflationary pressures and supply chain issues. I am confident that RCHC will continue to improve on its strategies and responsibility to create a better Canada for all.

Chair of the Board of Directors, Rwandan Canadian Healing Centre

Message from the Executive Director

Serving the Centre, its stakeholders, partners, and the overall community is not work but a fulfilling mission that bring joy each moment spent at the office, on the road, in the field, and most importantly – imagining, researching, and developing new ideas, concepts, projects and/or programs that offer more sustainable & affective solutions to current and future community challenges.

When we launched our services in April of 2018, we envisioned building a Healing Centre for members of our community, but even then, we couldn't have imagined the number of milestones we've managed to achieve thus far, or how near to our goal the Rwandan Canadian Healing Centre "the Centre" is today. Looking at where the Centre is today, it clear, that not only will we achieve our ultimate mission of building a Centre for Healing for Rwandan-Canadians and other members of the Black Canadian society & have the capacity to provide mental health services, resources and other support for people affected by PTSD, Trauma and other mental health-related effects; and thanks to an incredible leadership team, working with great private and public partners, as well as our grassroot collaborators, among others – that the Centre is now building capacity to deliver various services, including in the Affordable Housing Sector – for members of African Canadian Community and beyond.

Although most of the Centre's work thus far focused on building Capacity for the organization and its stakeholders; from its Inaugural Alkebulan Project 2019-2022 fiscal year, to the development of the AfriCanadian Resource Centre Android and iOS APPs; and the recent (currently underway) Capacity Building & Governance initiatives; the work carried on during the 2021 – 2022 fiscal year, well positioned the Centre to be able to deliver programing in areas of; Mental Health, Leadership Development, Research and Development, Advocacy and Awareness, as well as Affordable Housing. It's not always one finds great leaders to share a journey with when it comes to community work; the Centre's Board of Directors, as well as Advisors has been the cornerstone of its achievements since its establishment and continue to serve as a committed group of leaders who encourage a visionary, strategic, and system-level thinking culture. Since day one, I've received their wise counsel, and through many challenging events we've always arrive at shared decisions. They take the health and reputation of the Centre to heart and offer a level of professionalism that surpasses expectation. They not only support innovation approaches, but they also are willing and encouraging the staff team to take risk towards innovation to deliver "out of the box" solutions.

Where would we be without current and previous (private, public, and grassroots) partners and/or collaborators. The Centre acknowledges the support of many, including the Canadian Federal Government; the Social Development Partnerships Program - Supporting Black Canadian Communities, the Black Business Initiative, the Ministry of Housing and Diversity and Inclusion, Canadian Heritage, the Canadian Mortgage Housing Corporation (CMHC); the City of Toronto's Confronting Anti-Black Racism division, the Network for Advancement for Black Community (NABC), as well as all our grassroot collaborators and volunteers for their encouraging support & capacity.

On behalf of staff team, we strongly believe in the work on the ground and what's to ahead as we look forward to growing our team in the coming fiscal year, while we continue to aim even higher, striving for safer environment for Rwandan Canadians and other members of the Black Canadian society working to overcome traumatic experiences from genocides, wars and legacies of slavery and oppression.

3.4 Impairment

At the end of each reporting period the Centre assesses whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are incurred only if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a “loss event”) and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or group of financial assets that can be reliably measured. If in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognized, the previously recognized impairment loss will be reversed either directly or by adjusting provision account.

3.5 Revenue recognition

Revenues are the amounts recorded by the Centre associated with increases in economic resources related to its operating activities. The Centre follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. During the year under review, Contribution revenue from United Way and the Canadian Red Cross are recognized in the period in which the related expenditures are incurred.
